Billy Smith's Blood-Hounds.

Everybody has heard of Billy Smith's blood-hounds, those with which he was to hunt deserters; but few know of their history. We have at last found the man from whom they were purchased. His name is Berkeley Cone. A gentleman, from whom we gather this information saw him at Ferrell's on Wednesday, and had a long talk with him. He says that Billy Smith, during the war, wanted to buy his blood-hounds. He refused to sell. Smith then told him that if he did not let him have the dogs he would have him conscripted into the Confederate army. Berkeley Cone thereupon came to Raleigh to see Gov. Vance, after hearing the complaint, assured him that his exemption, if according to law, should be respected.

Billy Smith then sent for him to come to Johnston county to a militia muster. He went. Smith made a speech to the crowd, and told them that with Cone's dogs he would only need half the present number of men; and that Cone would let them have the dogs, and his horn, if they would put up $2,000 to pay for such of the dogs as might be killed, and he swore that "if any damned deserter" killed one of those dogs, he would hang him, if he caught him.

The money was made up at once.

Cone says Billy Smith kept the dogs a month; then he (C.) got them back, and paid Smith the $2,000 which had been raised at the muster-ground. The militia says this money was never refunded to them.

The Tuckers.

We yesterday saw a copy of Galignani's Messenger, published in Paris, France, July 13th. Among the Americans registered at the Chatham Hotel appears the following:

"Col. W. H. Tucker, Miss M. P. Tucker, Miss L. S. Tucker, Miss F. P. Tucker, North Carolina."

Our friends are having a pleasant time in the Old World; and will receive a cordial welcome on their return to Raleigh. They have visited Switzerland, Germany, and several other parts of Europe.

The nicest new mullet s and mackeral are to be found at Woollcott's on Wilmington street. His roasted coffee is good. He sells it at 30 cents per pound.

VANCE AND SETTLE.

The Rutherfordton Speaking--An Immense Outpouring of the People--Settle Caught it a Scurvy Trick and Shamed.

At noon Tuesday, a vast concourse of people, estimated at four thousand, had assembled in Rutherfordton. Vance came by the way of Spartanburg, accompanied by the band of that place and several admirers and leading men of the mountain country, while Settle rode in a buggy, and the time of his coming was unknown. Gov. Vance was introduced to the audience by G. M. Whitesides, Chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee. He spoke for an hour and a half. He referred to his election to Congress from the uncertain district where a young man; and defined his position as an old whig and Union man at the beginning of the war.

He demonstrated that frequent changes of parties are necessary to a pure and honest administration of the government; and then entered upon a powerful arraignment of the Republican party. He could say it without contradiction, and he called upon his competitor not to dodge the issue (but knew he would) that the Republican party had inaugurated a system of corruption more widespread and infamous than any ever known where the English language is spoken. This part of his speech he illustrated with several laughable anecdotes. His opponent would evade the living issues of the day and appeal to their prejudices.

He appealed to the people to be governed by reason and not by prejudice. He could forgive many of the crimes of the Radicals, but he never could forgive its attempt to degrade this good old Anglo-Saxon race beneath the African race.

His eloquence at this period was of the highest order and wonderfully thrilling in its tone, and it produced a marked impression upon the sea of faces before him.

He had no quarrel with the masses of the Republican party. They were honest, but their leaders were corrupt and had deceived them, and with God's help, he would never rest until they were driven from power

As soon as Judge Settle arose the negroes in the rear of the stand became exceedingly demonstrative and behaved in a boisterous manner. He commenced by thanking God that we had a Centennial year and grew rather pathetic over that fact. He then expressed his satisfaction at the high-toned and dignified speech of his opponent. Settle declared that he was a Douglas man at the commencement of the war. He said it was untrue that he was "a fire-eating secessionist" and member of "the Confederate Convention." He left the army, he said, because he wanted peace, and voted for Vance for Governor on that ticket. [Vance—"It was the best vote you ever gave." Tremendous laughter] Settle blamed Gov. Vance for his activity in the arrest of deserters and for carrying on the war. He then went over the same old ground of the Ku Klux. He dwelt at great length upon the homestead, and tried to make it appear that the Democratic lawyers were opposed to it, but failed. He was exceedingly severe upon the Robeson County Commissioners for turning the scales in favor of the Conservatives in the late Convention. Settle's speech was highly partisan throughout, and was confined mainly to arraigning Governor Vance for fighting as he did during the war. He was guilty of one scurvy trick which rebounded against his own head and covered him with shame, at last. He presented a letter, with the seal of the United States, which he alleged was written by Governor Vance during the war. The document was only miserably mutilated extracts of a letter cut up to convey a false impression; and the most that could be made out of it was the fact that Gov. Vance urged Congress to make desertion a misdemeanor in order to stop its increase.

Gov. Vance held the letter up to the people and pointed to the garbled extracts that had been made. He said that he applied for access to his own letters and had been refused by the United States Government, while his enemies were permitted to make use of garbled extracts to his detriment. He would like to have the whole of them published, but the Senate would never have the fairness to give them up. They were afraid to fight him a fair fight (murmurs of that's unfair, a villainous act and a shame on Settle). Everybody felt that Settle was guilty of a mean and shabby act, and Settle felt so too when he saw how he had fallen in his own pitfall.

Vance replied to Settle's boast of being a great peace man, that if he was, nobody ever knew it. Like the man giving his son lessons in astronomy, he told the boy that a little star to the left of the moon was at least 500 times bigger than the moon, and the boy thought if such was the case, that the star had a devil of a poor way of showing its size. He stated that neither the State nor the Peabody fund would loose anything by the act of Pool, as that official had secured the money he made use of by a mortgage upon all his property.

The difference between himself and Settle was this: They both held offices during the war. Settle raised a company, took them into the army, deserted them by resigning his command, and then ran for office, while he (Vance) was elected by the people while at his post, and was taken from the army at their command, and was sworn in as the Governor of their choosing.

We gather this meagre sketch of the speaking from an elaborate account of it in the Charlotte Observer of yesterday. Want of space prevents the possibility of publishing more.

The Speaking in Nash.

On the 26th instant, according to advertisement, a public gathering and speaking took place at Ferrell's, in Nash county. There was a large crowd. It is variously estimated at from three hundred to five hundred. Speeches were made by Hon. Daniel G. Fowle, John C. Scarborough, Col. Tom Keenan, Hon. Chas. M. Cooke, Henry Bourne, Esq., of Edgecombe, T. P. Devereux, Esq., of this city, and Mr. Sharpe, a Republican leader of Nash county. Able addresses were delivered by each of these speakers. That of Mr. T. P. Devereux is highly spoken of.

Judge Fowle delivered a speech of remarkable eloquence and power. It is said to have been one of the finest efforts of his life, and its effect upon the crowd was most profound. Several converts from the Radical ranks were made; and many were deeply impressed with his arguments and appeals.

The meeting was an entire success, and will redound to the benefit of the good cause of Reconciliation and Reform.

Louisburg Conference.

The Raleigh District Conference met in Louisburg on Wednesday, Rev. J. P. Moore, Presiding Elder. The following churches and circuits were represented:

Edenton Street Church, Person St. Church, Golding Circuit, Tar River Circuit, Granville Circuit, Louisburg Station.

Mr. S. C. White was elected Secretary, and S. L. Riddle, Assistant. Rev. J. P. Moore delivered an eloquent opening address. A fine sermon was preached in the morning by Rev. S. V. Hoyle.

An afternoon session was held. Resolutions praying that a gracious revival of religion may commence with the work of the conference was offered by R. W. Best, and adopted; after which various reports were received and the Conference adjourned to yesterday.

We gather the above from the Louisburg Daily Courier

The Great Item.

The great item of consideration among business men is how to make a remunerative investment. The problem can be solved by asking any old patron of the Raleigh NEWS if advertising is a profitable investment. Owing to its large number of readers, an advertisement in its columns will attract the attention and influence the patronage of more people than can be acquired by the outlay of the same money in any other way.

Counting the Cost.

It is the part of wisdom before entering on any important enterprise to "count the cost," and we were struck with the prudence of one of our most estimable and marriageable young men as he was on yesterday at a furniture store pricing different articles and particularly three different styles of an article that works on rockers.

Death of Col. Thomas H. Brem.

This prominent citizen of Charlotte died suddenly, after a two day's illness, in that city, on Tuesday. He was one of the most influential, esteemed, and substantial men of the community; and his loss will be deeply deplored. He was a good man, and universally beloved.

GRAND RALLY AT AUBURN.

Large and Enthusiastic Meeting—St. Mary's Township all Right.

The delegation of the Tilden and Vance Club of Raleigh Township, as heretofore advertised, visited St. Mary's Township Wednesday to assist the sterling Democrats of that community in the organization of a Tilden and Vance club. Although a very limited notice had been given, there were present at least two hundred good and loyal men. The meeting was held at the school house near Auburn, in a beautiful and shady grove. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed throughout, but as we have time and space only for a brief account of the proceedings, we shall for the present content ourselves with giving the minutes of the meeting as furnished us by the Secretary, Lucius Pool, Esq., and which speak for themselves.

On Friday last the club was partially organized, and a President, Vice Presidents and an Executive Committee were elected but no constitution was adopted. But Wednesday a thorough organization was effected, and the club put into good working order, a constitution was framed and submitted to the Executive Committee to be reported on at the next meeting of the club which will be on the second Thursday in August, when a rousing meeting may be expected.

The following are the officers of the Club, President Dr. W. I. Busbee. Vice Presidents, Quent Poole, H. S. Liles, H. Utley, S. A. Fort, Gaston Jones, Natt Tomlinson, Thos. Howie, Troy Poole. Secretary Lucius Poole, Assistant Secretary David Fort, Treasurer David Lewis.

The Executive Committee consists of the following named gentlemen: James Dupre, Wm. Watts, B. Poole, C. N. Allen, Augustus Bryant, W. Rowland, G. W. Crocket, W. P. Bryan, W. R. Pool, Ben Walton, W. N. Snelling, Sam'l Watts, E. Yarborough and E. G. Holleman.

In the absence of the President at the beginning of the meeting the club was called to order by Vice President Natt Tomlinson, Esq.

On motion of Capt. G. W. Crockett, S. F. Mordecai one of the delegates from the Tilden and Vance Club of Raleigh was requested to explain the object and workings of the Tilden and Vance Clubs now organizing throughout the State, to which call he responded in a very appropriate speech.

George M. Smedes Esq., another delegate from Raleigh was then called upon for a speech. Mr. Smedes made a few remarks, stating that we had met there not for talk but for work. He was like Mr. Ragsby when the list was once called, at a public meeting in Orange county, of those who desired to participate in the glories of the Mexican war. "He was thar, but he weren't a gwine to make a speech thar," he wanted to hear from the country that he might carry back the glad tiding that every thing was all right in St. Mary'e Township.

On motion of Capt. Allen the roll of all the members was called and all of those present in accord with the party, handed in their names to the Secretary. A long list of new members was the result, making the present membership of the club about 195.

On motion of Capt. Crockett, a vote of thanks was tendered to the Raleigh Township club for their valuable assistance, and interest showed in the club at St. Mary's. The business of the meeting being satisfactorily disposed of Capt. Crockett was loudly called for, and made a most hearty and encouraging speech.

Old Auburn and St. Mary's is all right. Capt. Allen was next heard from in response to the wishes of all, and showed that Vance was the man the people wanted, and work the watchword of the club.

Mr. Samuel Watts then took the floor and made a speech on the facetious order, explaining in the course of his remarks that he was the original and genuine Sammy, but had not been greased.

Dr. Busbee, the esteemed President came up at this juncture and made a few well-timed and appropriate remarks, winding up by saying he was certain of things being all right in St. Mary's, except in one precinct and that was coming over fast.

Mr. Holleman one of Vance's old soldiers said he couldn't make a speech, but he made one and a tip-top one at that.

A. B. Massey Esq., made a vigorous democratic speech. He freely confessed that on first hearing of the nominations at Raleigh he was opposed to Gov. Vance on account of the war tales that had been circulated in regard to him, but there had been time for repentance, and that now he was satisfied that these tales were malicious slanders and that he for one advised every white man who loved his country to support the Democratic ticket and enrolled himself as a member of the club amid vociferous cheers.

After Mr. Massey's remarks Mr. Smedes tendered the thanks of the delegation from Raleigh for the kindness shown them by the good people of St. Mary's, and invited them to make themselves at home in the club rooms of the Raleigh club whenever they happened to visit the city.

On motion the Raleigh papers were requested to publish the proceedings of the meeting. The club then adjourned to meet again on the 2nd Thursday in August.

Graham Haywood Esq., one of the delegates from Raleigh, in response to calls made upon him after adjournment, as a regular old stumper, said that as it was growing late he proposed to save his ammunition to help out the wood-peckers of the Democratic party, in their contest against the Radical crows.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Old Johnston Moving all Right.

CLAYTON, N. C., July 25.

TO THE EDITORS OF THE NEWS:

On Saturday 22nd on short notice the white men of this township met for the purpose of organizing a Tilden and Vance Club. J. L. Banks was called to the chair and J. T. Poole made Secretary.

A resolution endorsing the nominations of Democratic-Conservative party, National and State and congratulating the party and the country on the prospect of an early return to honesty and economy, were adopted. Short but stirring speeches were made by Messrs N. G. Gulley, J. L. Banks, J. M. White, J. Ogborne and J. Q. Ellington, after which every white man present was invited to come forward and organize the Club. Every man present did so. We thus have a nucleus of 50 men, true and tried, around which the white men of this township will rally, men who are determined to leave no stone unturned, no white man unsolicited to be a white man and act and vote as such.

So that in November next the white man's ticket shall receive the white vote as solid as that the blacks shall give to the negro ticket headed in this State by "Capting" Settle. An intelligent negro said to your correspondent a few days since that Vance would not get any colored man's vote. It is a shame that the negro ticket should receive a white man's vote. By them the battle has been offered and the line drawn and "we will fight it out on this line of it takes all the summer."

It has been claimed that Johnston county belongs to Nimrod Billy Smith of hound and horn notoriety. Watch and see if November does not show his title invalidated: I learn that his Bentonsville trick brought no good to him. But I suppose you will hear of that more directly and definitely.

You will be informed occasionally of things hereabout "if the waters keep low" by

This School will open on the 1st of August at the Governor's Palace for the admission, free of tuition, of every white child between 6 and 21 years of age in Raleigh township. Those out of this township will pay $10 per term of ten months.

While it is a matter of right that every white child in the township may attend this School free of charge, the Board of Trustees suggest to all who feel able and are willing so to do, that they pay such sums quarterly in advance as they may find it convenient to do, in order to meet the necessary expenses that cannot be paid out of the school fund.

Such expenses are especially pressing now at the organization of the school.

JAMES MADISON LEACH, OF DAVIDSON.

THE appointment of John Pool to the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction shows that corruption, hypocrisy, trickery and fraud are yet honored among Republicans as cardinal virtues.

GOVERNOR VANCE was denied access to his own official letters deposited at Washington; but Settle turns up with a copy of one. So the administration is standing square up to Settle. The New York Tribune (Republican) says the Republicans cannot succeed unless they cut loose from the administration. Instead of cutting loose, Judge Settle seems to be getting on closer terms with them than ever.

JOHNSTON COUNTY.—This famous old county will be one of the hardest fought fields in the State. Both parties will put forth their utmost exertions. So far, everything is encouraging for us in that quarter. An interesting letter from Clayton, published in to-day's NEWS, shows that the whites are organizing for the most determined contest that even old Johnston ever saw. They are going in to win—in spite of Nimrod-Billy, of hound and horn notoriety.

ORGANIZING.—The Democrats of Pittsboro have organized a Tilden and Vance Club. Great enthusiasm prevailed at the formation of this Club. Its President is William L. London, Esq., one of the truest and noblest young Democrats in North Carolina. The influence of this Club will be potent for good all over Chatham. It embraces in its organization every township in the county. With such sterling men as the President of this Club, and Messrs. Manning, Moring, Womack, Jackson, Rencher, London, and others, to lead the party, under the Vance and Jarvis and Tilden and Hendricks' banners, victory is assured to us. There is every evidence that the white men of Chatham will this time go solidly for the Democratic ticket.

THE NOMINATION OF BROGDEN.

If the negroes of this State have not yet waked up to the fact that they are being used by the white Radicals for their own personal and selfish ends, we should think the nomination of Governor Brogden for Congress over the present incumbent—John A. Hyman—would arouse them to a realization of this truth. This nomination is the last link needed in the chain of evidence to convict the white leaders of the Republican party of the baldest hypocrisy towards the blacks, who follow them with a blindness, an infatuation, that is astonishing as well as pitiable to behold.

It stands now as plain as the sun in the heavens, that the negroes of North Carolina are to do the voting, while their white captains enjoy the offices, with all their fattening emoluments, and their opportunities for plunder.

The colored Republicans are eighty thousand strong at the polls; the whites but twenty thousand at the very outside. If fairness were done, if the colored men had that consideration at the hands of their white leaders here as they receive in South Carolina, Mississippi and Louisiana, they would be entitled to at least four-fifths of the offices. Yet how does the matter stand? Of the seven nominations on the State Ticket the blacks did not get a single one. A very respectable negro man was mentioned in the Convention for Lieutenant Governor; but was overwhelmingly defeated.

After this—after taking all the State offices, these greedy, hypocritical cormorants with pale faces, go into the colored field—the Second Congressional district—and rob the black race of the only good office held by one of their color. Hyman, the colored man, must stand aside that Brogden, white, may get an office.

We are reminded of the story of Nathan and David, which may thus be paraphrased, to suit this case: There were two races in one district; the one black and the other white. The white race had exceeding many fat offices and places of public trust; but the black race had nothing, save one little seat in the Congress of the Nation, which they were mighty proud of, and kept for a pet of their flock, one Hyman.

And there came to the whites a hungry office-seeker, one Brogden; and they spared to give him one of their own places on the State Ticket; but took the only office the black race had, and gave it to the man that was come to them.

Will the anger of the colored men not be kindled against these greedy, selfish white men? Is the black race forever to be the hewers of wood and drawers of water for the Brogdens, Smiths, and others, who grow rich in positions to which they were elevated by the votes of colored men?

Time alone will open the eyes of the blacks to a consciousness of how they are duped and used by their selfish white leaders

COST OF THE CONVENTION.

It will be remembered that during the campaign last year, the Republicans said the Constitutional Convention would cost an enormous sum of money. Some of them put it up as high as a half-a-million of dollars. It is a wonder they didn't say a million.

Well, the Convention was held, its work accomplished, and the exact cost figured up, in the Auditor's and the Treasurer's Departments. What did it amount to? Thirty-five thousand and sixty-one dollars and fifty-two cents, ($35,061.52.)

This sum is made up as follows:

Per diem and mileage,	$23,385 80
Incidental Expenses,	349 60
Stationery,	425 00
Printing, &c,	4,754 94
Postage,	1,031 50
Copying,	124 00
Shipping, &c., &c.,	487 68
Filling 6 pr. of Journal with Secretary of State,	200 00
Pay to Auditor and Secretary of the Convention,	800 00
Paper,	4,500 00
Total,	$35,061 52

We obtained these figures from the highest official source. They are absolutely correct and reliable.

In contrast to this moderate, reasonable, honestly expended sum, let us see what the cost of the Republican Constitutional Convention of 1868, was. In round numbers, that body cost the State, for its expenses, ninety thousand dollars, ($90,000) in round numbers—nearly three times the cost of the Convention of 1875. It was in session from January 14th, to March 17th—sixty-four days; while the recent Convention was in session from September 6th to October 11th—thirty-six days.

Which of the two was the most economical? And what becomes of the gigantic story about the late Convention costing a half million of dollars?

Everybody knows how the Republican party is given to deception. But in regard to the cost of the Convention they went even beyond themselves. They hatched out a lie more immense in its proportions than any they had ever told before, perhaps.

What does this gross attempt to deceive the people prove? That no confidence can be placed in anything the Republicans say about political affairs. Sired by the Father of Lies, and "damned" by everybody, as Gov. Vance says, they are totally unworthy of trust, and deserve wholesale repudiation by the people, whom they have imposed upon.

THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER comes with a full account of the speaking at Rutherfordton. Vance's victory over Settle was complete.

THE FIRST ENCOUNTER.

The meeting of Governor Vance and Judge Settle at Rutherfordton was one of intense interest. Eagerly was the first encounter between these champions looked for by the people of the whole State, of both parties; and each party was prepared to believe that the victory would be won by its man.

The contest is over. And who WAS the victor? The accounts received by mail and telegraph inform us that Governor Vance's effort was unexcelled, perhaps, by any that he ever made in his whole life. For eloquence, wit, power of argument and persuasion, and masterly massing of facts in arraignment of the Republican party, it has never been surpassed, even by himself. It had a telling effect upon the audience, and gained votes for us. Judge Settle made a powerful speech; but he acted unfairly in garbling Gov. Vance's letters, written during the war. Was it not shameful to attempt to take an advantage of this kind? However, it only afforded Governor Vance an opportunity of achieving another signal triumph over his antagonist.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Bishop Gil Haven is going to Liberia.

A niece of of General Robert E. Lee is a belle at Cape May.

Benjamin F. Butler and Roger are counsel for Moulton.

Sheridan will not take the field in person against the Indians.

Saratoga girls' white muslin dresses are heavily full and puffed.

Henry Clay, a grandson of "Harry of the West," is announced as candidate for Prosecuting Attorney of the Louisville City Court.

The Paris papers say that silk and velvet don't fit the female form close enough, and that we are shortly to see our girls clad in kid dress bodies.

"I don't b'lieve in eddication," says Mr. Allums. "Thar's me and Calline ain't got 'long no better in the worruld than pappy's other children that warn't eddicated."

Chicago Times: To see Lieutenant Grant walking down State street, switching a twenty-five cent cane, fighting Indians, and saving his country, is one of the noblest and nobbiest sights under the sun.

Ben. Butler wishes to take the stump for Hayes and Wheeler, but the fastidious Republicans of Massachusetts are hinting pretty broadly that he can do them more service by taking the stump for the other ticket.

The ballet of Booth's Theatre arrived in New York on Sunday on the Australia. The company consists of fifty Italian coryphees. They hail from Milan, and were engaged for Lord Byron's play of "Sardanapalus."

POLITICAL NOTES.

West Virginia is claimed for the democratic candidates in November.

Monday night the Conservatives of Norfolk ratified the nomination of Tilden and Hendricks.

Bishop Whittle thus sums up the Custer massacre: Our brave troops have been murdered, not by Custer's rashness, not by orders, not by savage Indians, but by a nation which after one hundred years of trial persists in a policy which sows blunders and crimes and reaps massacre and war.

In the programme arranged by the Democratic Campaign Club of Philadelphia provision has been made for the meeting of Boys in Blue with the Boys in Gray, and for the assembling of the descendants of the patriots of the Revolution, soldiers and sailors of the Modoc war, the Mexican war, and the rebellion. Among the distinguished soldiers invited are Generals McClellan, Hooker, Steadman, Fitzhugh Lee, Lamar, Hill, and Colonel Hooker.

The first great Democratic Ratification meeting in New York was held on Monday at Irving's Hall. There were a vast concourse of people. The resolution ratifying the nomination of Gov. Tilden says:

In Samuel J. Tilden we recognize one who has used his official influence and power to expose and correct abuses; who has often and again shown himself endowed with the moral courage and sturdy resolution to grapple with abuses, although strengthened into established custom, and whether within or without his own party; one whose name is already a watchword of reform; whose capacity and courage for the work are matters of record rather than of promise and speculation; whose life is a guarantee of his fidelity and fitness, and that he will restore the simplicity, independence, and rectitude of the early administrations—a man whose election will cause the most disheartened to take new courage, and all mankind to say:

"The Americans are indeed in earnest to restore the ancient purity of their Government."

EMPLOYMENT.

Settle and the Kirk War.

[Wilmington Journal.]

HEAR WHAT HOLDEN SAID.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
Executive Department,
Raleigh, August 17th 1870.

To the President of the United States:

SIR: The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of this State, sustained by his Associate Justices, has decided that I have a right to declare counties in a state of insurrection, and to arrest and hold all suspected persons in such counties. This I have done.

But the District Judge, Brooks, relying on the fourteenth amendment, and the acts of Congress of 1867, page 385, chapter 28, has issued a writ of habeas corpus, commanding the officer Kirk to produce before him the bodies of certain prisoners detained by my order.

I deny his right thus to interfere with the local laws in murder cases. I hold these persons under our State laws, and under the decision of our Supreme Court Judges who have jurisdiction on the whole matter, and it is not known to Judge Brooks in what manner or by what tribunal the prisoners will be examined and tried.

The officer will be directed to reply to the writ that he holds the prisoners under my order, and that he refuses to obey the writ. If the marshal shall then call on the posse comitatus there may be conflict, but if he should call first on the Federal troops it will be for you to say whether the troops shall be used to take prisoners out of my hands.

It is my purpose to detain the prisoners, unless the army of the United States under your order, shall demand them.

An early answer is respectfully requested.

W. W. HOLDEN,
Governor.

"It is gratifying to be able to say that the other Justices have been in unreserved conference with me, and that all concur in these Habeas Corpus proceedings."

An Execution in Japan.

An execution by decapitation has taken place within the walls of the prison-yard at Tobe. The man who suffered death was Amamiya Chuyehoo, who, on the 1st of March last, enticed a Japanese boy, fifteen years old, into his house in Mitsumi Nakaco i, Sanchome, and there strangled him, in order to rob him of $3,000 in Japanese paper money, which the boy had been sent to change into gold at a bank in Honchodori. The execution ground is a small square inclosure, divided from the rest of the prison-yard by a fence of boards about fifteen feet high. It contains only a small open shed and a post for strangling those who are condemned to be executed in that way. At one side of the inclosure lay a small straw mat about three feet square, and on this the executioner's sword, wrapped up in yellow cotton cloth. Next to this mat stood the executioner, a stalwart, middle-aged man, dressed in a blue uniform, with a cap. Presently Amamiya was led in, blindfolded, dressed in a new sky-blue robe with white tassels, his legs and head bare, and his hands tied behind his back. He was made to kneel on the mat, and in that position he muttered a short prayer, the executioner, with a naked sword in his right hand, standing on his left, and the executioner's assistant to his right. The prayer over, the assistant pulled the doomed man's robe down his shoulders, and put the head in a right position; down came the sword with a flash a slight thud was heard as it struck the neck, and Amamiya's head rolled on the ground, while the trunk fell forward, the warm blood pulsating from the severed neck. The assistant executioner seized the head by the hair, took off the cloth from the face, threw from a bucket standing near him a couple of ladles of water on the neck, and held up the livid face to the gaze of the spectators.

Mark Twain on the Indians.

I went to the Secretary of war, who was not inclined to see me at all until he learned that I was connected with the Government. If I had not been on important business I suppose I would not have got in. I asked for a light (he was smoking at the time,) and then told him I had no fault to find with his defending the parole stipulations of General Lee and his comrades-in-arms, but I could not approve of his method of fighting with the Indians on the plains. I said he fought too scattering. He ought to get them more together—get them together in some convenient place, where he should have provisons enough for both parties, and then have a general Massacre. I said there was nothing so convincing to an Indian as a general massacre. I said the next surest thing for an Indian was soap and education. Soap and education are not as sudden as a massacre, but they are more deadly in the long run; because a half-massacred Indian may recover, but if you educate him and wash him it is bound to finish him some time or other. It undermines his constitution; it strikes at the foundation of his being. "Sir," I said, "the time has come when blood curdling cruelty has become unnecessary. Inflict soap and a spelling-book on every Indian that ravages the plains and let them die.

THE ELECTIONS IN THE SOUTH.

Grant Promising Aid to Carry Louisiana and the Carolinas for Hayes.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The desperate straits into which the Administration and the leaders of the Republican party have been brought was confessed to-day by the President to T. Morris Chester, a colored lawyer from Louisiana who had an interview with Grant in company with the Secretary of War. The President admitted that North and South Carolina and Louisiana were the only Southern States that he hoped to carry at the next election, and if there was any doubt about Louisiana the Administration would promptly aid the party in that State to insure success. This implied a liberal supply of troops, generous donations from the campaign fund, and measures that would strengthen the supporters of Hayes and Wheeler throughout the State.

In this connection it can be stated that another part of the plan of the party is, that if the Democrats carry Mississippi the United States Senate will not count the vote. This was predicted by Jere. Haralson, the colored Congressman from Alabama, in a speech made by him in Selma on the 15th inst., and he added, "I have talked with Senators, and I know what I say." Haralson is a member of the Republican National Executive Committee in place of Senator Spencer, and Haralson has a right to say that he knows whereof he speaks in regard to the proposed attitude of the Senate on the electoral vote of Mississippi.

Billy Smith Speaks.

[Goldsboro Messenger]

Major W. A. Smith, the Radical candidate for Lieutenant Governor, spoke at Bentonsville on Saturday last. About 300 to 400 people had assembled to hear the Major "blow his horn." A friend who was present tells us that his speech was an uphill business; and as regards its effects, an utter abortion. It was addressed to the passion and prejudices of his audience, but failed, at any time, to excite the slightest manifestation of enthusiasm or applause on the part of the whites, only now and then an almost inaudable squeak from a few sable voices in the crowd.

William M. Evarts for Governor.

[New York Sun.]

The nomination of Mr. Evarts for Governor has been suggested in many quarters, and strongly recommended in some. We are inclined to acquiesce in the propriety of this nomination. Mr. Evarts might make himself useful in the office of Governor; and we think, if nominated, he would be elected. We wish to be distinctly understood on one point, however, in speaking of Mr. Evarts as a candidate for Governor. Our idea, of course, is that he should run on the Democratic ticket. We have too high an estimate not only of his qualifications, but of his sagacity, to suppose that he would think of accepting a nomination in these days from the vanishing Republican party.

THE GREAT TUNNEL OF MASSACHUSETTS.—The Hoosac tunnel, which is now completed, and through which passenger trains from Boston are making through connections with the West over the New York Central road, cost the State of Massachusetts, including its railroad connection of forty-four miles, $16,732,766, of which $4,110,885 has been paid for interest. The capital cost of construction represented in the funded debt of the State is $13,757,972, in bonds bearing five per cent., gold, interest, and maturing all the way from 1888 to 1895. The annual charge of the Hoosac-tunnel debt is over three quarters of a million in currency, or about the same as the whole state tax in Massachusetts before the war. The sinking fund to meet this debt now amounts to $2,923,190.73.

According to the mediums, Charlotte Cushman has begun to write poetry since her arrival in the spirit land, but the poetry is bad enough to make Charlotte turn in her grave.

There seems to be a wide spread desire to get editors to go to Congress. Watterson of Louisville is going there; the friends of Bowles of Springfield are anxious to send him there; and Haskell of Boston has just refused to be a candidate. Let our talented editorial brethren run for Congress if they desire to do so; but we don't like to miss them from their papers.—N. Y. Sun.

The Jews of the United States have addressed to the King of Spain a petition praying him to restore to the descendants of the Jews, expelled by the kings of former ages, their civic rights and religious liberty. The decree of the 30th of March, 1492, expelled them from the kingdom, and deprived Spain of an active and laborious race. The fanaticism of her kings, governed by the influences of the Roman Church deprived her also of the last remains of the Moorish race, and her decadence commenced with this regime, inaugurated by Ferdinand V.

A $200,000 HOTEL.

What Dr. Pierce is Doing—An Important Enterprise.

We learn that Dr. R. V. Pierce, proprietor of the "World's Dispensary," in this city, has perfected the purchase of a large lot of land, on which he proposes to erect a large hotel for the accommodation of his numerous patients coming hither from all points of the compass. The land purchased by the enterprising Doctor is 234 feet front on Prospect Avenue, running through to Fargo Avenue, 332 feet; also an adjoining lot extending from the above to Connecticut Street. It is in the midst of our extensive system of public parks, fronts the old and beautiful Prospect Park, is but a short distance from the "Circle" in one direction, and the "Lake Front" in the other. The site selected is a fine one, being both beautiful and healthful; is one of the highest portions of our city, easily accessible, yet sufficiently retired to secure quiet, and commands a pleasant view of the lake and river, as well as of the surrounding city and country. We understand that it is the intention of Dr. Pierce to erect a hotel at the cost of at least two hundred thousand dollars, where those who come to enjoy the benefit of his treatment may find all desired accommodations under one roof, instead of being scattered over the city as at present. We are further given to understand that our architects will be invited to submit plans for the proposed structure without delay.—Buffalo Express.

THE EASTERN WAR.

The Servians Cross the Timok--A Fight Expected--A Disguised Turk Arrested--Romance not to be Localized--The Turks and Russia--The Montenegrians Retire--The Army to be Mobilized, &c.

LONDON, July 26.—The Servians with six cannons crossed the Timok River near Bregova. An engagement is expected to-day. A disguised Turk was arrested at Gladona, he had several packages supposed to be intended for poisoning the Servian wells. There is considerable excitement at Crete, Greece.

Roumania, where the Turks commenced the war is not to be localized. The Turks expect hostilities with Russia.

The Turkish commander at Klech has a three days armistice. His offer of surrender with the honors of war was refused. The retirement of the Montenegrians within their own territory seems confirmed. The Times special from their Ragussa and Vienna correspondents says the Mantenegrians are withdrawing from Mostar in order to co operate with the Servians. Special telegraphs to Berlin says preparations are making to mobilize the whole army.

Special telegraphs to Vienna say it is said that the Turkish embassadors here have confidentially stated that the Porte declares that some of the most important of Roumania's demands are inadmissible and refuses to discuss the cession of the Mouth of the Danube, as that question equally concerns the other answers.

LONDON, July 26.—A dispatch from Constantinople to the Reuters Telegram Company says: It is stated that the Government has decided to issue paper currency to the amount of three million Turkish pounds.

RAGUSA, July 26.—Intelligence received here from Selavonic sources announce that 15,000 Turks under Mehmet Hamdi Pacha attacked the Mountenegrians Tuesday near Padgoriiza. They were repulsed and pursued to Padgoritza. Both sides lost heavily in killed and wounded.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 27.—Official dispatches from Scutari July 24, say the Turks have dispersed the Mountenegrians concentrated in the vicinity of Medun. 5,000 insurgents subsequently attacked the Turks but were repulsed losing considerably.

MITROVITYKA, July 24.—The enemy were beaten at Sutanitza with heavy loss.

WIDDEN, July 26.—Five Servian battalions crossed the Timok River but were repulsed.

MOSTAR, July 26.–Mouhkatn Pacha announces that on the 24th inst,, he pursued the Montenegrians whom he defeated at Nevesinje as far as Studenity on the approach of the Turks the Moantenegrians retreated in the direction of Baujani abandoning a large quantity of provisions and many cattle.

LONDON, July 27.—A dispatch to Reuters Telegraph Company from Semlin dated to-day, says during the last four days the Servian Gen'l Tchernaoff has been combatting with a Turish attack. The result is the defeat of Tchernaoff and an attempt to join Gen. Leschjanih.

Gen. Tchernaoff's army has gone to Parakin.

Prince Milan and Gen. Tchernayoff will go to Laitschar to encourage the army by their presence.

The Servians attribute Gen. Leschjaniah's defeat on the 18th inst., to his incapacity and misconception of the Turkish movements. To-day a large battle is progressing on the Timok River. There are no details.

The Pall Mall Gazette special Emperor William has earnestly impressed the Prince of Roumania with the importance of maintaining peace in Turkey and has demanded from Roumania the observance of strict neutrality, and has complained that munitions of war are transmitted to Servia though Roumanian Territory.

The Roman Catholics of Bosnia have subscribed a considerable amount of money for the Turkish war expenses.

The Flying Dutchman Kills an Engineer and Fireman.

LONDON, July 26.—A Pall Mall Gazette special from Bristol say flying Dutchman, a fast train running at full speed between Faunton and Bristol, left the track near Long Ashton. The engineer and fireman were killed and it is feared that a number of passengers were killed. The train is a complete wreck. The Superintendant of Police who brought the information of the accident, reports two passengers killed.

NOTE—Gen. Francis H. Nichols commanded a Louisiana brigade in the army of northern Virginia and lost a leg and arm during the war.

WASHINGTON.

Troops Ordered West--Civil Appropriation Bill--Caperton's Vacancy, &c.

WASHINGTON, July 26—The two battalions of artillery which have been ordered to report to General Pope, in the Department of the Missouri, will be composed of two companies of the 21 Artillery from Fort McHenry, Md; one company 2d Artillery from Charleston, S. C.; one company 21 Artillery from Fort Macon, N. C.; two companies 1st Artillery from Fort Adams, R. I; one company 1st Artillery from Fort Warren, Mass., and one company 1st Artillery from Fort Trumbull, Conn., Col. Otis is ordered to join his regiment, the 7th cavalry.

The coinage of the trade dollar has been suspended at all mints except San Francisco, where it is confined to the actual demand for export. It is thought that Representative, Faulkner will fill Caperton's unexpired term.

The President will allow the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill to become a law without his signature. This will occur simultaneously with the expiration, of the extension of the present appropriations, and postpone its economical features for a few days.

Bluford Wilson, Ex-Solicitor of the Treasury, testified before the whiskey frauds committee to-day to the effect that the President co-operated with Bristow and him in the whiskey speculations up to the time when Babcock's connection with the frauds became manifest, but then ceased to do so. Wilson said that during the pendency of the prosecutions Babcock obtained possession of a letter of his to Henderson urging activity and watchfulness, and interpolated, or got interpolated an expression which distorted the meaning, and made it appear that he (Wilson) was trying to connect the President with the frauds.

CONGRESS.

The Senate adjourns in respect to Senator Caperton--Cox Sick--The Washington Monument.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Immediately after the reading of the Journal on motion of Senator Bayard, the Senate as a mark of respect to the late Senator Caperton, adjourned until to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

Senator Cox is sick.

The Banking Currency did nothing to-day.

The House, after passing the bill for the completion of the Washington Monument with an amendment, and adopting the resolution in eulogy of Senator Caperton, adjourned.

Vanderbilt Near His End.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Commodore Vanderbilt passed an exceedingly restless night. It is only too apparent this morning that his condition was worse than at any time during his protracted illness. About 9 o'clock his physician, Dr. Elliott, was summoned and he immediately responded to the call, taking with him two consulting physicians. The patient was found to be in a heavy stupor, utterly unable to understand any questions put to him, symptoms deemed so unfavorable that the death of the Railroad King may be looked for any moment.

The R. R. Against Tilden.

NEW YORK, July 27.—In the suit of the St. Louis, Altan and Terre-haute Railroad Company against Samuel J. Tilden and others, order heretofore granted, extending time for the defendants to answer to the first Monday in October, has been modified by consent of the consul to the first Monday in August, as longer time has not been deemed necessary.

The Illinois Nominations.

QUINCY, ILL., July 27.—Democrats 11th Illinois District nominated R. M. Knapp for Congress. This is regarded as a greenback triumph.

A CARD.—To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOS. T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. ap 16-D&W6m

APPETITE A NECESSITY.—Appetite is a necessity. Without it, sufficient food is not received into the stomach either to nourish the system or to give the stimulus to the bowels which they require. Both these organs and the liver become torpid in consequence, and the blood grows poor in quality and quantity. Improve the appetite, therefore, and avoid such results. This is most effectually done with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a tonic appetizer and alterative without a peer It gives not only an unwonted zest for food, but enables the stomach to digest and the system to assimilate it. Flatulence, biliousness and constipation are also promptly and permanently removed by it, as the blood becomes pure and the liver and bowels regular. Each nerve and fibre of the body is made to tingle with health by its use, and it is the leading remedy for despondency.

PREPARED BY

C. G. LANIER.

HICKORY, N. C.

In offering to the public for their use an relief the

Old North State Vegetable Stomach Bitters,

I feel no hesitancy in saying this is the purest and best article ever offered them. I warrant each bottle to contain NO chemical whatever—nothing but the best vegetable preparation, (See recommendation of physicians,) and the purest Domestic Whiskey.

In preparing this excellent tonic I have spared no pains or cost to make it just what I recommend it to be—

The Very Best Tonic ever offered to Invalids and Others, and without the usual cry of "Encourage Home Enterprise," I would say to all the suffering—Throw away the filthy and worthless drugs sold you heretofore by would-be "all cures," and try one bottle of

and if then you will say you have not been benefitted by its use, I will return to all such their money.
